Three players of the New York team kicked so hard at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon that they were put out of the game by Umpire Nash. The three players were payer, the captain of the team; Warner and Taylor, the deaf-mute pitcher. Davis and Varner were sent to the bench in the fifth inning and with Davis out Phyle, the pitcher, was assigned to cover short field. Taylor was put out in the sixth inning the team then being further weakened as a result of the kicking outbreak by Bernard with a ame ankle being brought in to cover short and Van Haltren, who is convalescing from an injured shoulder, going to centre field. The Chicagos won and made it a whitewash the score being 4 to 0.

The play which brought about the enforced retirement of Davis and Warner was at the ome plate. McCormack was on third and Eason on first with two out. Eason started to steal second and the ball was thrown to pavis, who set out to run Eason down, at the same time keeping an eye on McCormack. le crmack came tearing for the plate when Eason was chased back nearly to first and Davis lined the ball to Warner. McCormack slid and Warner tagged him with the ball. o catcher then saw Eason going to second hase and threw to Nelson.

Nash ruled that McCormack was safe whereupon Warner rushed out to where the pire was in the middle of the diamond and shoved bim with both hands. Nash remptly ordered him to the bench, but he did not go as promptly as he was ordered. He took his time about it, still wrangling, and bayis came in to kick. Spectators toined in the rumpus, some yelling play ball and some shouting deristvely at the umpire. Finally order prevailed and the game proceeded without further fuss until an inning later, when Taylor, being unable to say things to the umpire, childishly threw the ball to the ground and left the box to come up to the untire and signal his displeasure, and the next moment he was on his way to the bench. A half dozen or more bluecoats took up positions near Nash after the game, but there was no threatening demonstration. The New Yorks outbatted the Chicagos, but could not make their hits at the right time. Hartzell's two-bagger and Doyle's single let the visitors score a run in the fourth inning. McCornack's run in the fifth was the second and Childs and Raymer scered. did not go as promptly as he was ordered.

Lajote Not Enjoined—Ten Days' Clause Not Relished by the Court.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17—The option clause of the National League and the right reserved in the contract to discharge a man on ten day's notice received a knock-out blow to-day in the decision handed down by the Judges of Common Pleas Court No. 5. The New Yorks had some thard drives cut off by the spry work of the Chiesgo outfield. Hickman slashed a two-bagger to right in the sixth inning, but was thrown out trying to make it a triple. Again in the ninth Hickman doubled. Strang, who kept up his good stick work, snashed a smoking liner to centre which looked good for three bases, but Green gathered in the whisting ball and doubled up Hickman at second. A one-handed stop of a fast grounder over second base by Davis was a splendid play. Doyle made two hits and was caught napping at first base, Taylor to Ganzel, which furnished him with an occasion to growl at the umpire. The score:

Mr Young sent this answer. "Theorigin-iresolution reducing originiting the number of players to sixteen, to take effect May 15, required the unanimous vote of the League for the reason that it disturbed vested constitution right of each club.
